Russ,
If they let you out of this school (with your brains) I know you'll have no trouble getting out.
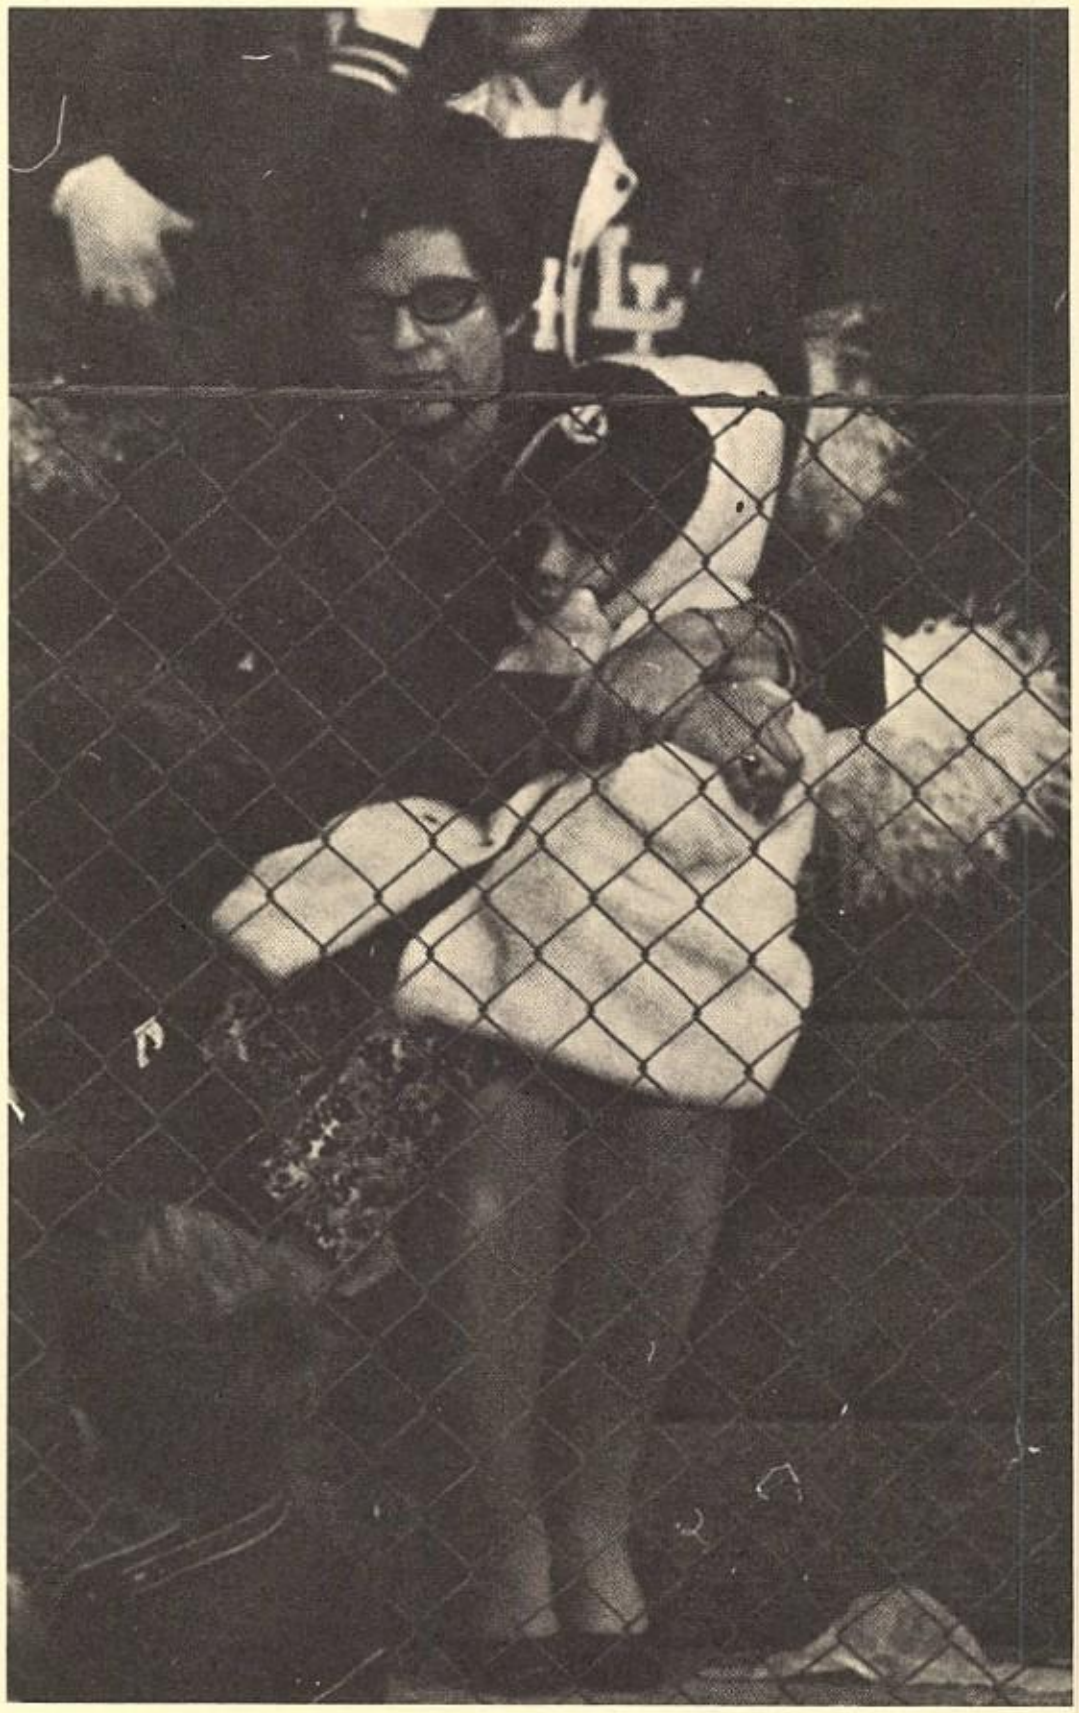
Love,
Clarence



In Honor of Mrs. Frances Davenport

For seven years Lake Highlands has been served by a dedicated woman who has focused her unending energy on many phases of our high school. Teaching girls' physical education classes, coaching the tennis team, and sponsoring the Student Council and cheerleaders are among her past and present credits. However, her main contribution is her molding of 62 girls in a precision drillteam that produces successful performances throughout the year—the Highlandettes. The staff would like to recognize and thank her for her various accomplishments. We are proud to dedicate the 1970 Wildcat to Mrs. Frances Davenport.

Frances Davenport

Dear Russ -
This history class has been fun, huh? Help enjoy yourself at A&M
next year - I'll be Yelling on the

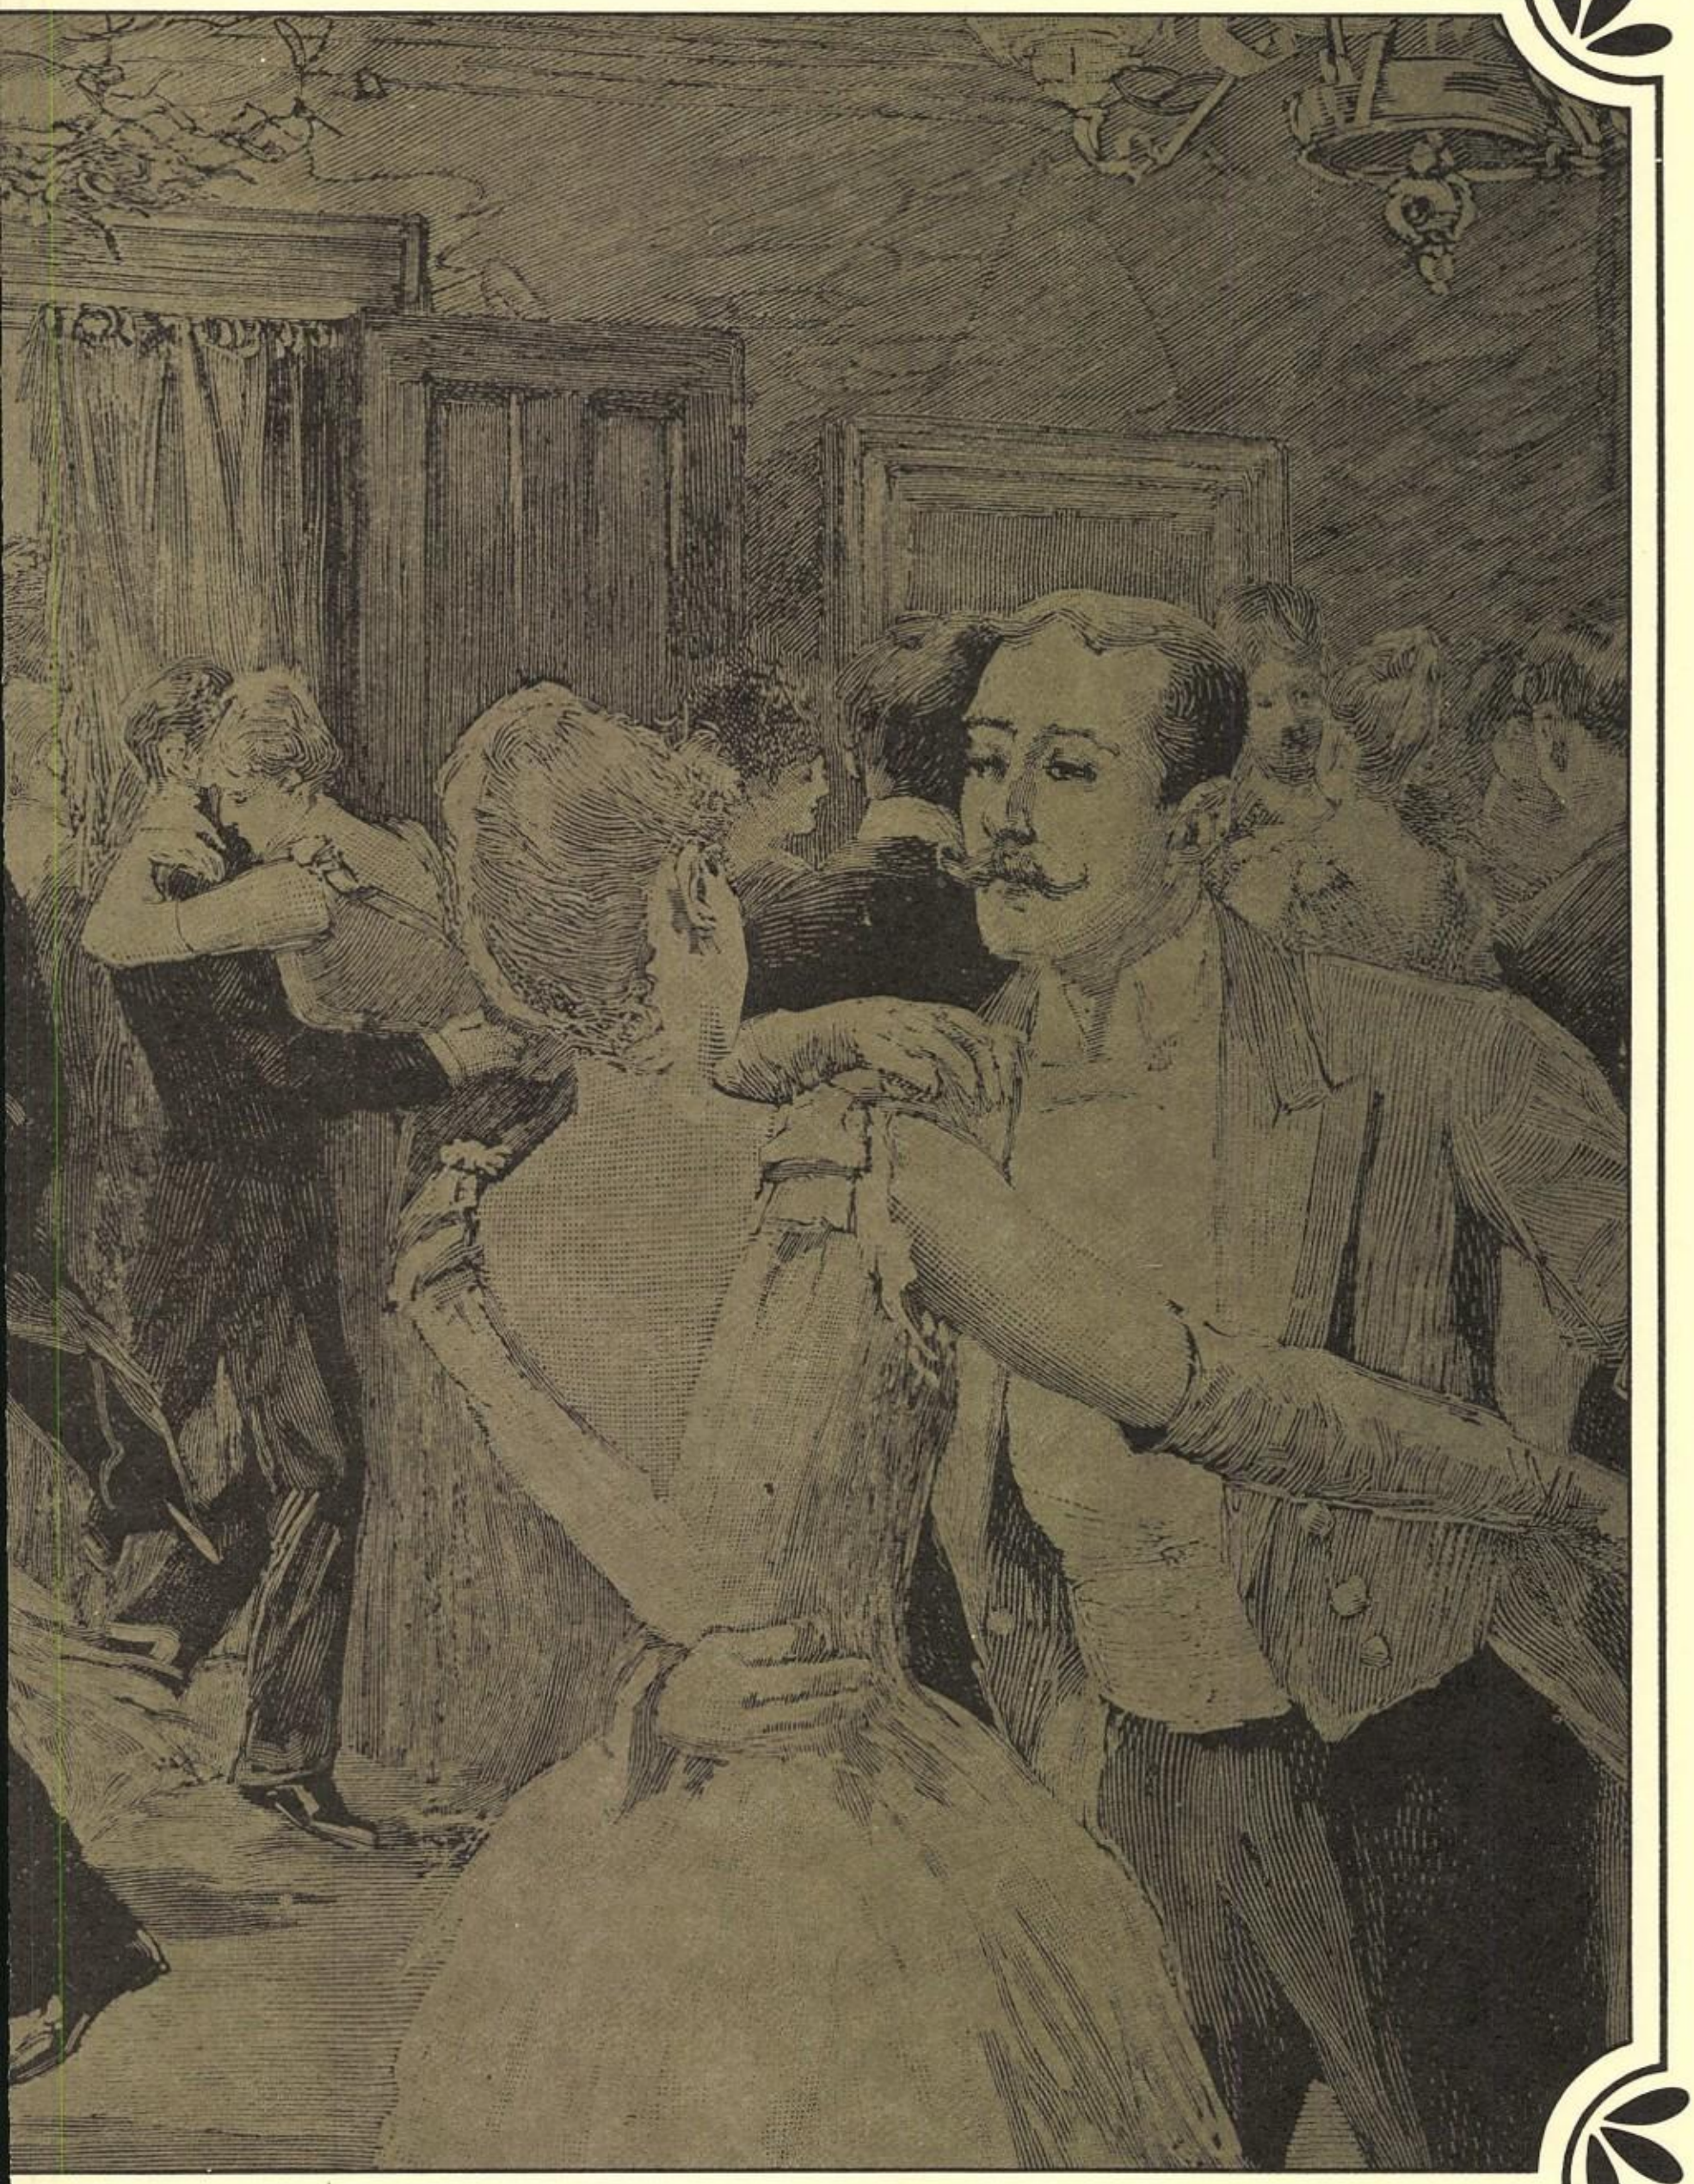
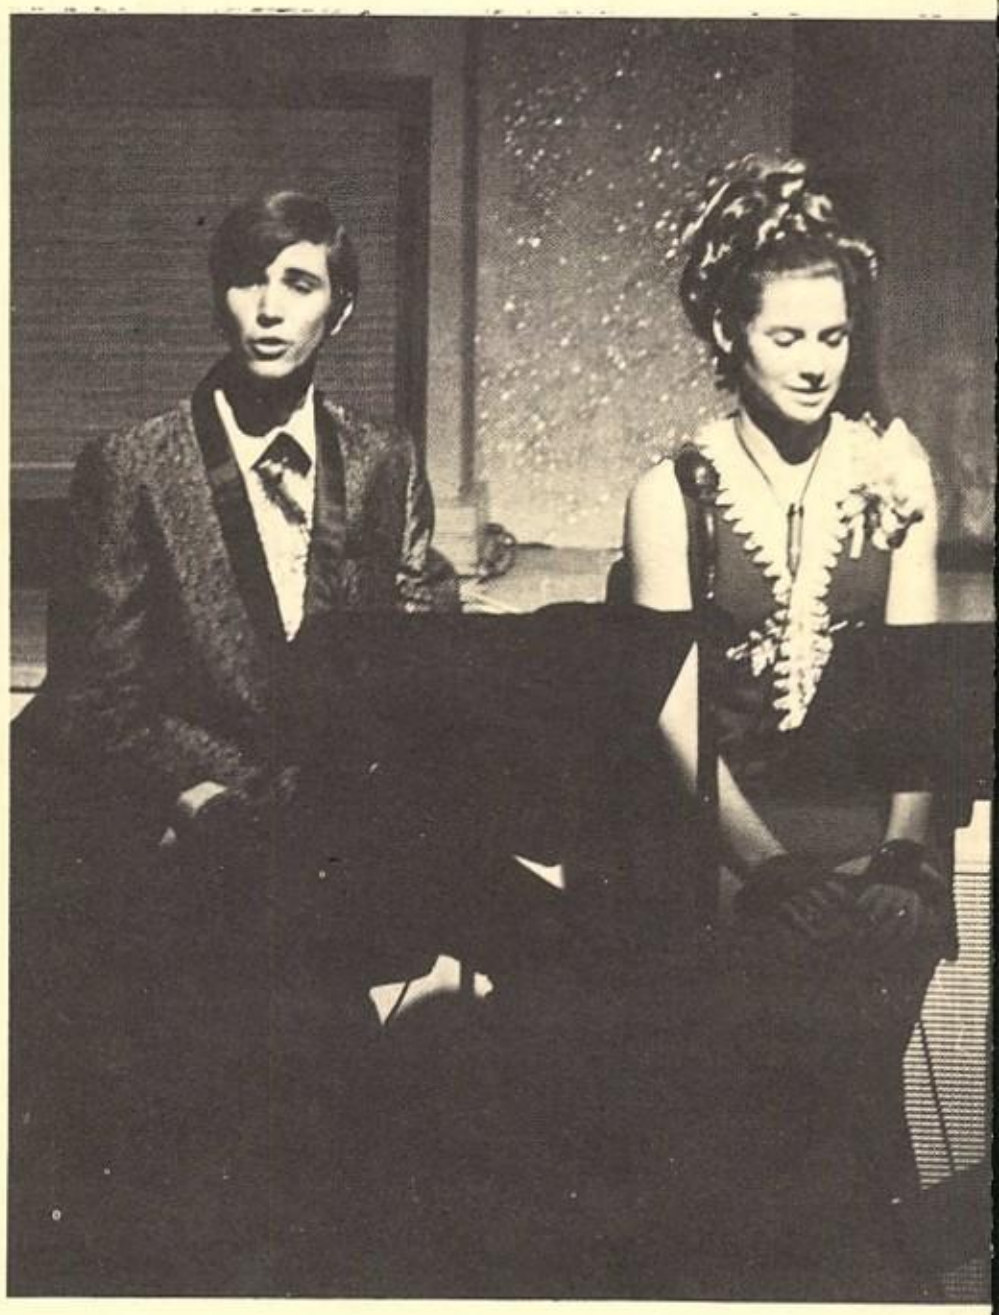
"Youth, enthusiasm, and tenderness are like the days of spring. Instead of complaining, oh, my heart, of their brief duration, try to enjoy them" — Ruckert



Varsity Revue Sparked Homecoming

Once again Lake Highlands students blended their talents to produce a successful Varsity Revue. The Wildcat Band, who sponsored the show, selected the revue acts following two days of auditions. Displaying their versatility, the bandsmen, under the direction of Mr. Howard Dunn, not only boasted a fantastic Stage Band, but also wrote the humorous run-ons which delighted the audience. The Golden Decade, marking the ten-year existence of Lake Highlands High School, was the theme of the show.



Above right: Three Indians watch Columbus' approach, which marks the end of "Red Power." Above: Drill team officer Cindy Savage innocently invites the audience to "spend a little time with me." Right: Fervently declaring, "I'm proud to be an American," Tom Gillman and Patti Sullivan close the first half of the VR.

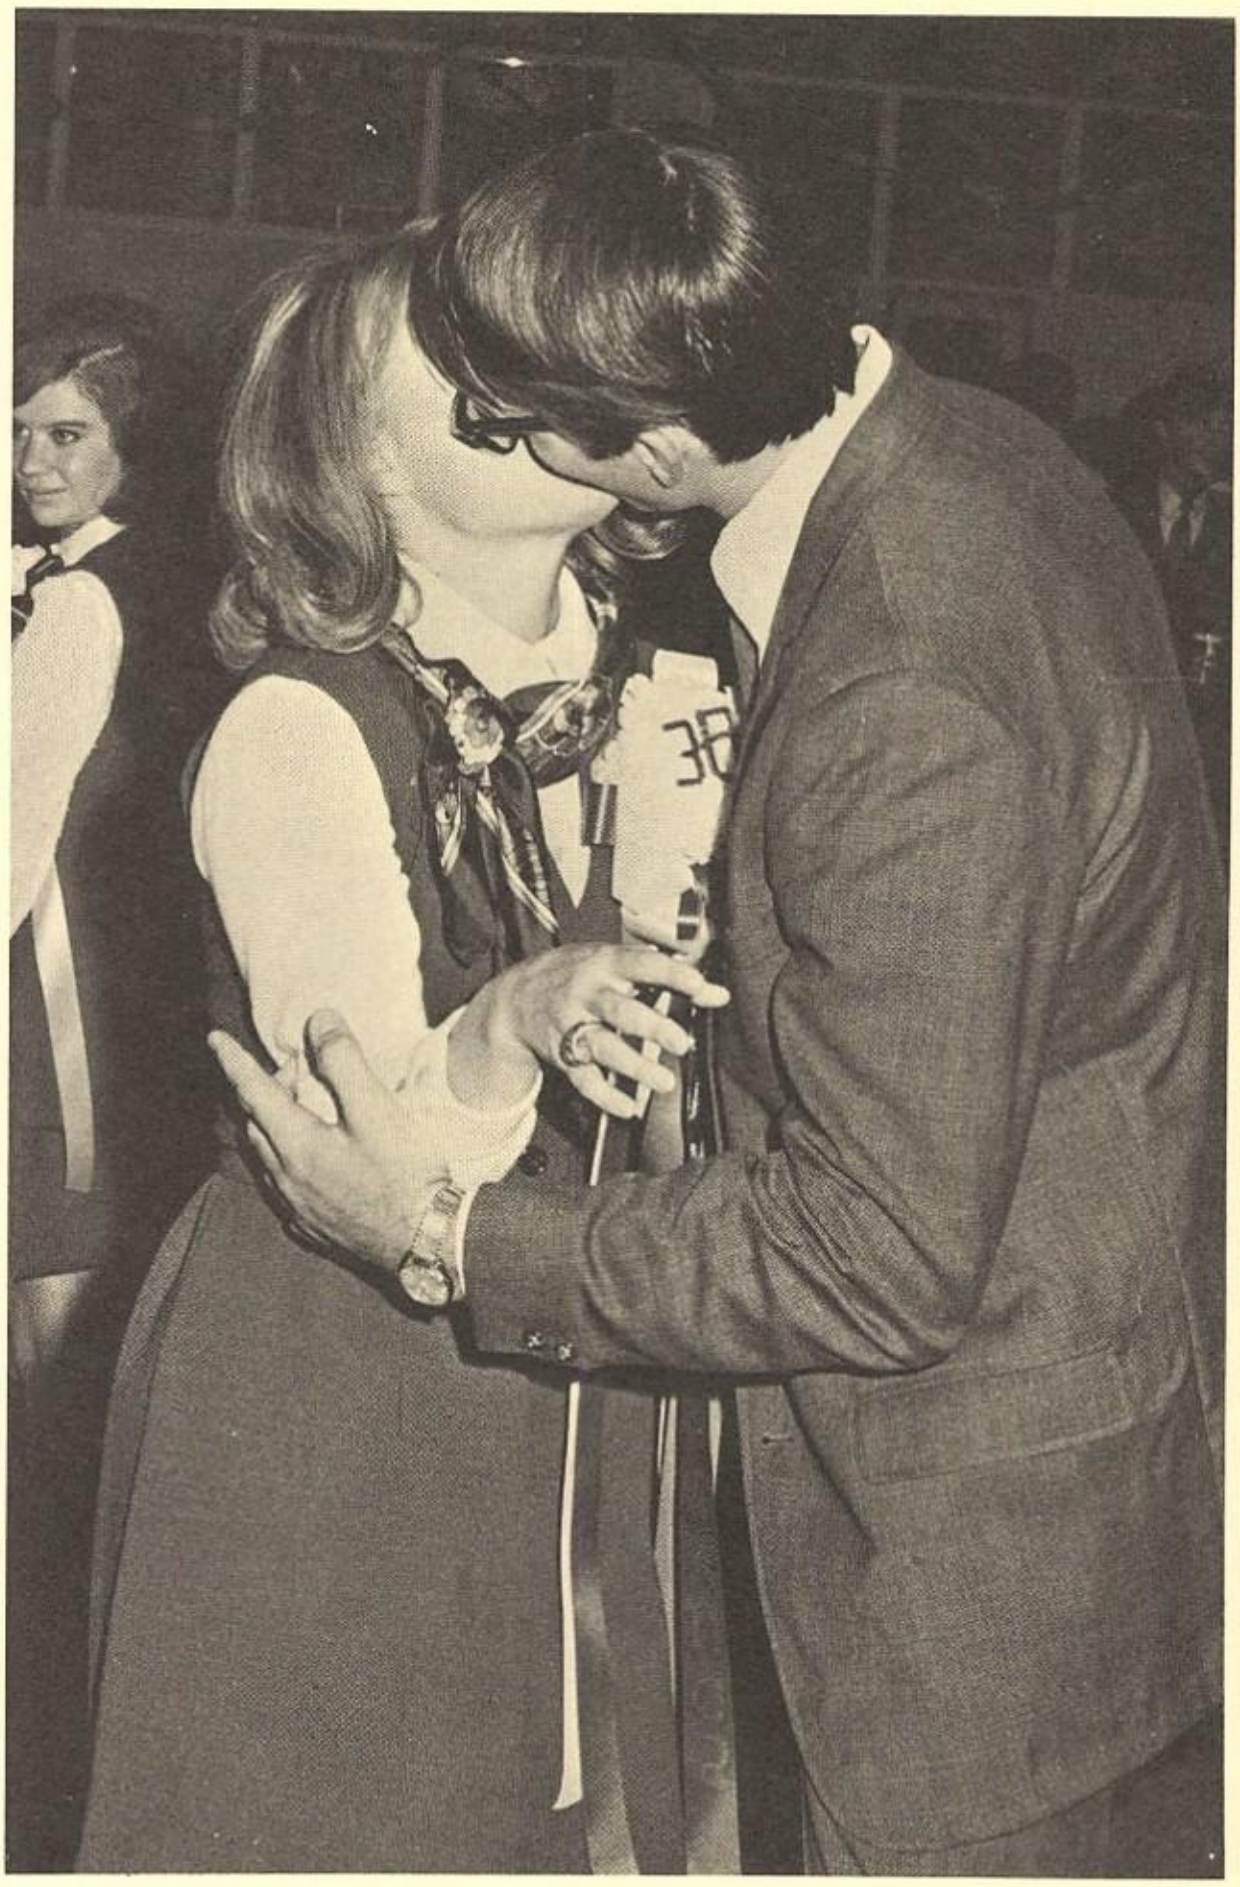
Tie Climaxed Homecoming

Returning to their ever-changing alma mater, the six graduating classes enjoyed all the splendor and pageantry accorded to an LH Homecoming. To these exes, Homecoming meant the enjoyment of a new stadium as they recalled their weekly trips to Richardson in previous years. To some, Homecoming meant a date, a mum, and a dance. To the band and drill-team, it meant the excitement of a pre-game spectacle. To a few girls, Homecoming '69 was extra-special. The eight nominees for Queen were: Bev Carter, Choir; Cris Berry, Wildcat Band; Kay Harvey, Student Council; Barbara Yarborough, Highlandettes; Dana Henderson, Sophomore Class; Penny Atwood, Junior Class; Patti Tate, Senior Class; and Barbara Harris, Football Sweetheart. To them, Homecoming was a convertible ride climaxed by their presentation to the song "Mr. Lucky." To the Wildcat football team, Homecoming meant another victory. Pieced together, these many fragments of Homecoming formed an unforgettable memory to all who participated in the extravaganza.

Surprised and happy, Patti Tate, Senior Class nominee, escorted by Carl Waslin, gasps as the results are announced. The pre-game festivities provide more excitement than past years as for the first time in LH history there is an exact tie for Queen.

Traditional Dance Proved Exciting

Excitement electrified the atmosphere! Frantic preparations were made for the "Big Game." The bonfire, pre-game festivities, and Homecoming dance exhibited the spirit that erupted from the student body. As the last couple left the dance, and memories of the walloping victory lingered on, another Homecoming week came to a close.



Above: "Barbara, I swear I did not tell Patti what you were wearing!" Right: Danny Jordan congratulates his "sweetheart," Barbara Harris, on being named Homecoming Queen.

Dinner Provided Funds

In their typically organized and enthusiastic fashion, the Senior Class carried out the planning, preparing, and serving of the most important meal of their high school career. The annual chicken dinner provided the expected success as the seniors obtained their funds for the spring activities and their guests enjoyed the delicious meal.

Females Competed in Third Olympics

Banners waving and band playing, the teams marched around the gym. Thus the third annual A.F.S. Olympics got off to the traditionally spirited start. The competition was stiff as classes vied for the coveted trophy, which landed in the hands of the victorious sophomores. They clinched the prize when their Sweetheart nominee, Steve Brown, received the most votes, in the form of contributions to the A.F.S. As always, the proceeds from the presentation, which was exciting as well as profitable, were added to the fund to bring a foreign exchange student to LHHS

Presentation Spotlighted Seniors

Highlighting the first semester activities of the Y-Teens, the Presentation was the social event of the season. Walking through an archway, the seniors and officers descended to meet the extended hand of their escort. Their parents and friends watched as the girls strolled down the red carpet of the SMU Ballroom. Presented to the "Love Theme from Romeo and Juliet," the couples who attended the gala affair agreed that it was a "time for us."

Mardi Gras Came Alive

"Hey Mista!" "Let's move to Texas." "Boo Cowboys, yea Saints."

The Wildcat Band and the Highlandettes were greeted by these various cries as they paraded down the streets of downtown New Orleans. Meandering through the narrow streets of the French Quarter, the LH'ers were awed by the hilarious aspects of the city: the sunny grounds of Jackson Square, the tiny souvenir shops and the "happy" people on Bourbon Street. Whether romping through the New Orleans City Park or cooling off after the eight mile parade, the Lake Highlanders enjoyed the unusual trip as they endured hair-raising bus rides and warehouse accommodations.

Undoubtedly, the high point of the trip was the Crewe of Mid-City Parade. The streets of New Orleans were overflowing with hysterically festive people who greeted the Texans with smiles, praise, and bloodshot eyes. The Wildcat Band and the Highlandettes' precision-filled performance stamped an indelible impression on Mardi Gras 1970.

Tom Gillman ponders over the eight mile trek.

Activities Were Diversified

Although the activities and interests of LH'ers are varied, all are meshed into a unit for a cause, such as the Don Rozzelle Fund or the Mrs. Cannon drive. It is effort like this which makes LH proud of its students and faculty. Helping someone on College Night, raising money for a service club, listening to a patriotic speech, receiving an honor for a job well done, or simply enjoying a dance, are activities which occupy the lives of Lake Highlanders.

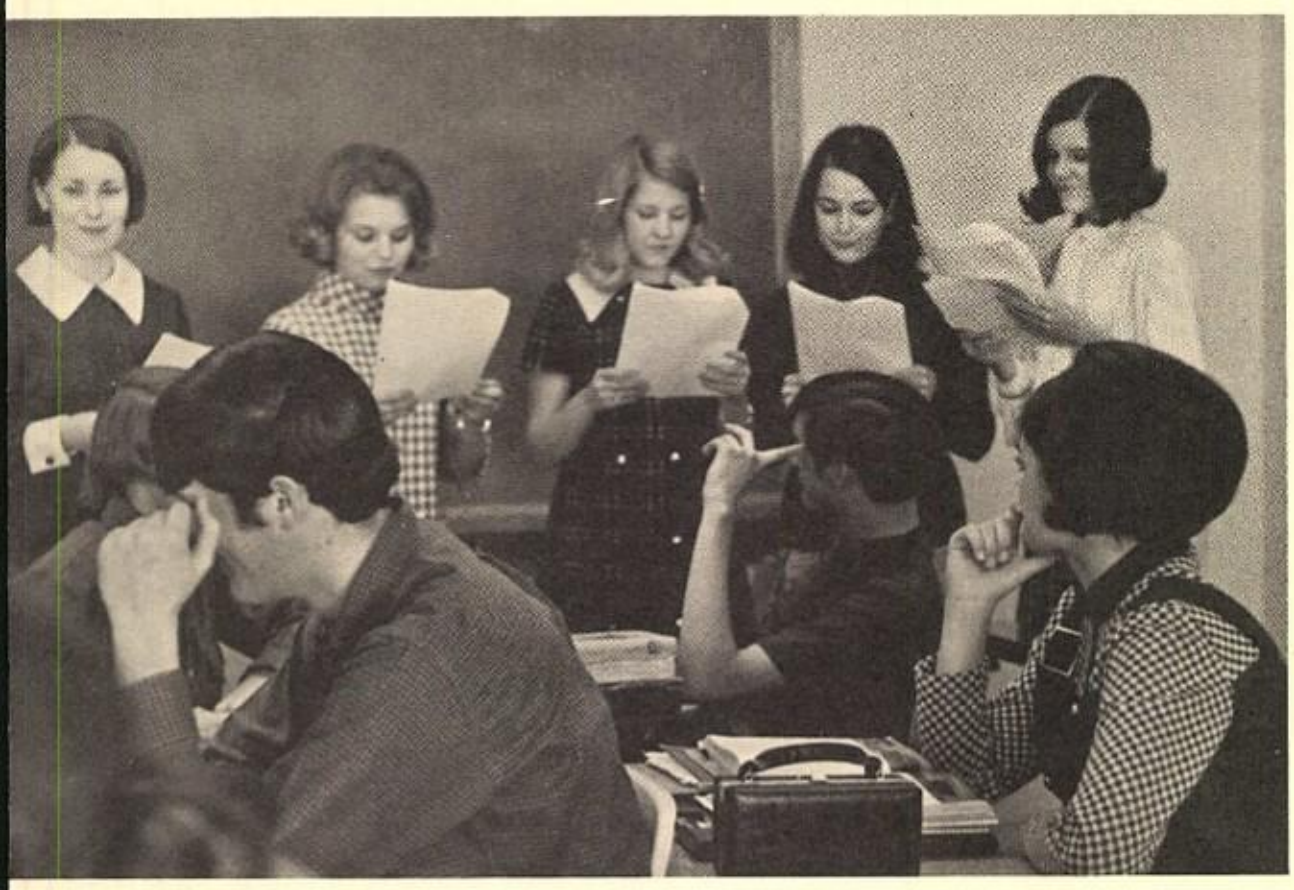
Productions Proved Enjoyable

Whether viewing a Red Masque production or attending a sixth period assembly, the LH student body enjoyed the variety of entertainment offered. The yearly agenda featured all types of vocal entertainment, ranging from the excellent medleys sung by the LH choirs to the exciting music of The New Hope Singers. Not only were the LH'ers spectators, but they were also active participators at dances at Christmastime and Valentine's.



Top: Miss Marjean Edgar directs the Girls' Choir in a Thanksgiving program. Middle: Following a brilliant performance, the cast of "The Devil and Daniel Webster" return for a curtain call. Left: Brightening the dull classroom routine, FTA members sing romantic Val-o-grams.

Dance Spotlighted LH Favorites

Undergoing a rejuvenation this year, the Favorites Ball proved to be an astounding success. Thanks to Mr. Tom Crigger, Student Council sponsor, Mr. Harvey, originator of the decorations, and Miss Fran Maples, Wildcat sponsor, the dance and the presentation were conducted in a well-organized manner. The Rogues provided the sounds and the "Forest Where Alice Went" furnished the light show. The decorations, refreshments, and cozy tables added to the elegant, romantic occasion.

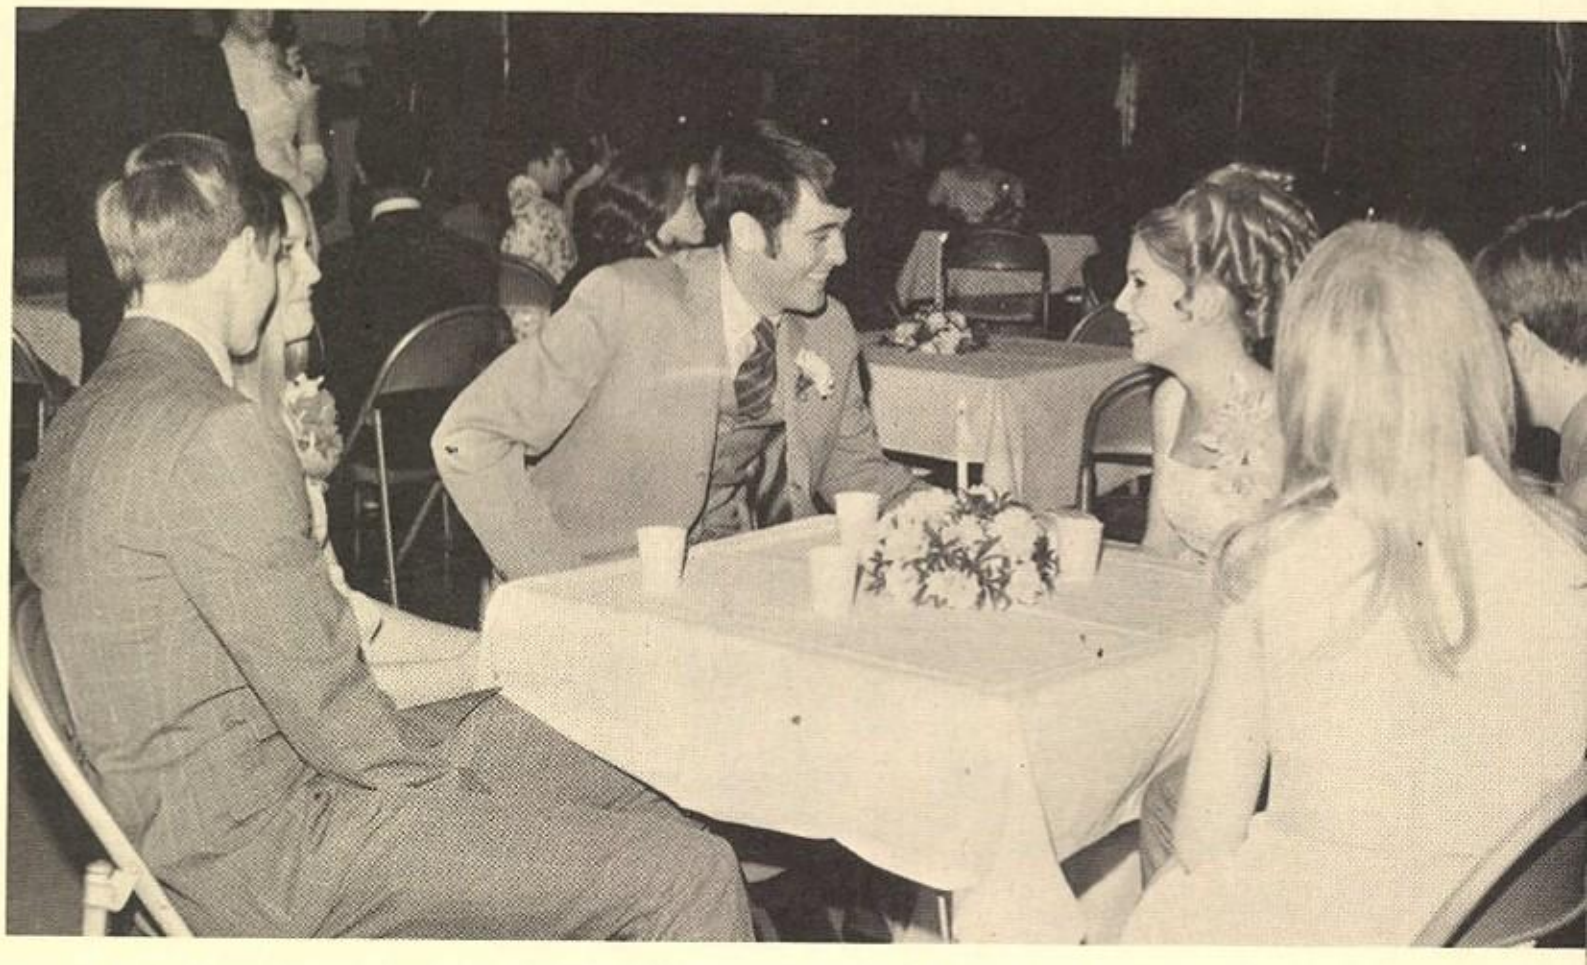
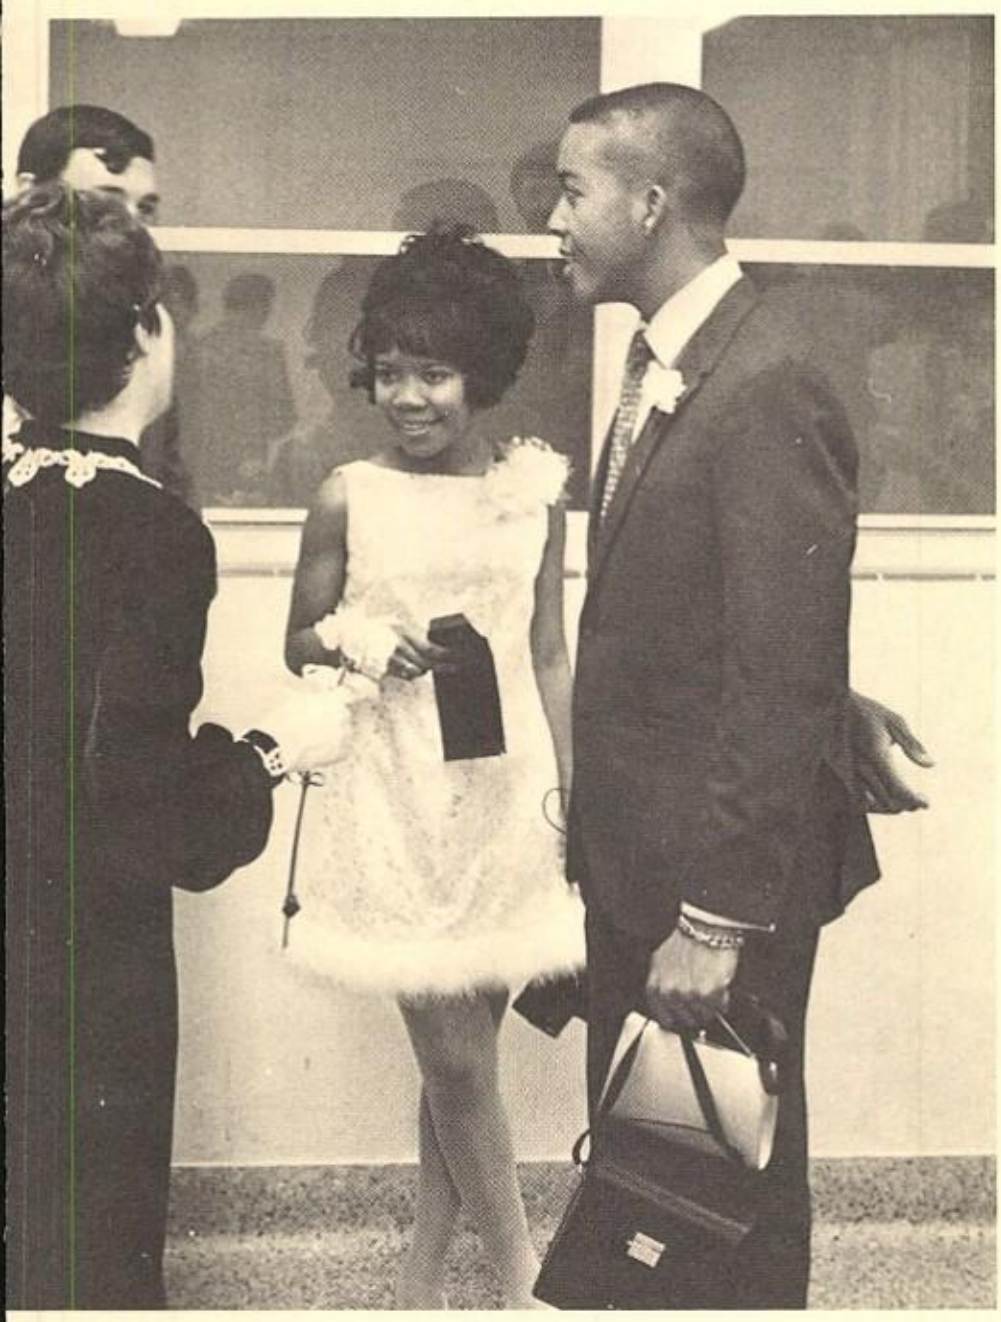
Winners Accepted Congratulations

Suspensefully awaiting the announcements of the winners, the nominees reacted in typical fashion. Whether poised, embarassed, happy, surprised, or shocked, they composed themselves and congratulated each other following the presentation. The atmosphere of the February 14 spectacle was electrified by the outstanding group. Favorites Ball 1970 ended with the excitement of Valentine's Day coming to a close.

Left: Senior nominees Susan Kern and Jan Swope nervously await their appearance on the stage. Top: Senior Favorites Susan Kern and Steve Wilson shyly acknowledge their honor.



Top: Miss LHHS nominee Kay Harvey and Rod Clark enjoy each other's company amidst the gaiety of the Favorites Ball. Right: Modest and happy, Sally Russell and David Grinsfelder, pose after being named Mr. and Miss LHHS.



Ball Honored Fine Students

The two highest honors given at the Favorites Ball were Most Likely to Succeed and Mr. and Miss LHHS. To be nominated for either of these is a tribute to the high school career of the nominees. To actually attain the honor, one must not only be popular, but also must display outstanding service and love for Lake Highlands. The 1970 winners should be justifiably proud of their titles.

Student Council Met Changing Needs

Providing a new dimension of Lake Highlands ligh School, the Student Council earned acclaim or its services. A well-organized, efficienct book- tore enabled students to obtain school supplies, aperback books, and Lake Highlands novelties. o keep the LH'ers informed of various activities nd club meetings, the Council erected bulletin boards in the cafeteria and outdoors. Maintaining its reputation as the "voice of the students," the SC held on open sound off session to discuss current school problems. Rounding out its broad schedule, the Student Council sponsored various assemblies and dances, including the Homecoming Dance and the Favorites Ball.

Exchange Club Served Communit

Lake Highlands has a "brand new" club. Started at the end o last year, the Junior Exchange Club, sponsored by Mr. Jeff Kan is a service club dedicated not only to Lake Highlands but also t the community as well. Membership is limited to a select group wit a grade average of 85 or higher. Junior Exchange is unique becaus it was the first Exchange club between Florida and California. The main function is to co-operate with the adult Exchange Club.

No, Virgiina, the Key Club doesn't make keys! They served the community by collecting funds for the March of Dimes and aid school spirit by sponsoring the Bellboys and the annual Clubs vs. Coaches Basketball game. The Key Club, sponsored by Mr. Charles Moore, is a subsidary of the International Key Club. They are also the oldest service club at Lake Highlands. Officers were: Pres. David Grinsfelder; V. Pres. Doug Geldert; Treas. Randy Ashby; and Rep. Robert Grinsfelder, John Vernon, Pat Hogan, Dana Dotson, and Jimmy Corcoran.

AFS Brought Exchange Students

Creating greater understanding between peoples of the world by bringing students from abroad to study in United States schools and to live with United States families was the goal of the American Field Service, sponsored by Miss Lynda Cleveland. This year we were doubly gifted with two students from abroad. Osvaldo Viegas from Brazil and Ryuichiro Nakamura from Japan were welcomed to Lake Highlands to study and make new friends. Last summer, Kathy Dunlevie was sent to Paraguay where she spent three months getting to know our neighbors in the south.

Y-Teens Aided Youth

During the cold days of early January, the Y-Teen members campaigned from door to door for the March of Dimes asking for contributions to aid research into the causes of birth defects. Earlier in the school year Y-Teens, sponsored by Mrs. Lynn Tull and Mrs. Becky French, programmed personal appearances, hay rides and the Presentation Ball. They also formed and promoted the Don Rozell Fund to raise money for a student of Lake Highlands who was injured in a firearms accident. Y-Teens, Lake Highlands' school and community service club, meets every Tuesday to plan activities for the improvement of the community and the school.

Spanish Lured Students

Spanish students ranging from first to fourth year took part in a tremendous treasure hunt encompassing the entire Lake Highlands area. All clues were written in Spanish, and the winning team received ten points added to their final nine weeks average. At Christmas, less fortunate Latin American children were surprised with a party by compassionate club members. Officers were: Pres. Kathy Dunlevie; V. Pres. Joe Callaway; Sec.-Treas. Seniors Created Pub

Just as winter drew to a close, spring burst in overloaded with activities, homework, spring fever, and the Senior Pub. An ironic observation on the graduating class, the faculty, the administration, and whatever else seemed fair game, the Pub was staffed by 37 dedicated and loyal members. Sponsored by Mrs. Becky French, the Pub traveled recklessly over rules, regulations, and reputations. Yet, it provided the seniors with a few momentous memories to recall in years to come.

German Proved Fun

"Der Deutscher Verein," the Lake Highlands German Club, held the first German Bake sale in the school's history. Proving their cooking abilities not to be only German-oriented, they also held a Texas-style barbecue. Later they celebrated the German harvest with an Oktoberfest. They traveled to San Antonio to represent Lake Highlands at the Texas Convention of the Association of German Students. Sponsored by Miss Joyce Joslin, club members had fun as they improved their German.

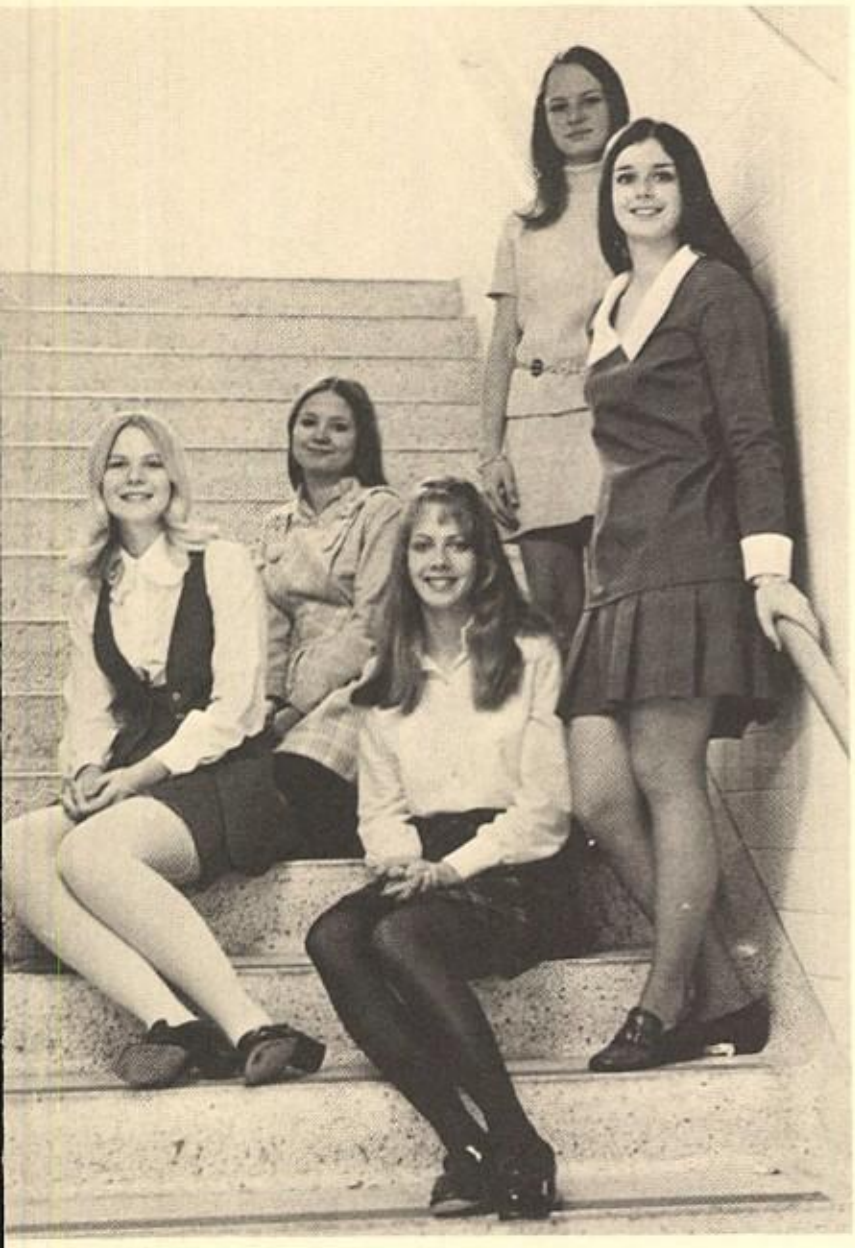
French Club



"La Petite Sorbonne," sponsored by Miss Fran Maples, learned many interesting facts about the culture of the French people. Monthly meetings included French slides and films. For a change of pace, the French club decided to have a fondue party at Jennifer Thompson's house. Members particularly enjoyed the annual banquet at a French restaurant and Christmas carolling.

Officers were: Jennifer Thompson, Pres.; Sherry Johnson, Vice-Pres. of Programs; Debbie Nesbitt, Vice-Pres. of Membership; Carol Caver, Sec.-Treas.; and Kathy Dunlevie, Reporter.

Students Explored Sciences

What would happen if an amoeba were put into a positively-charged solution? Would it live or die? Science club members probed into data and experiments similar to these. They held a bake sale to raise money to finance their annual trip to the coast. The club, sponsored by Mr. Kelwin Ellis, has explored the nature of biology, chemistry, and physical science. Next year, they hope to further their knowledge in a world of awareness. Officers were: Pres. David Nelson, V. Pres. Kathy Hines, Sec. Chris Carlson, Rep. Joe Callaway, and Hist. Debbie Grayson.

Physics Students Studied Theories

Lake Highlands students, armed with a fluent knowledge of science in its most complex aspects, banded together to form the Physics Research Order. The group, sponsored by Mr. Bryant Wolf, set its goal at achieving a broadened look at the world of physics. The club solved problems dealing with complicated formulas such as Einstein's Theory of Relativity, Sir Isaac Newton's assumption of gravity, and an occasional problem or two with pulleys and inclined planes. Officers were: Pres. John Richardson, V. Pres. Charles Moore, Sec. Whitmey Wolf, Treas. Bob George, and Rep. Mark Wooten.

Students Selected for Society Membership

Before being selected as a member of the National Honor Society, pplicants were judged on academic grades, leadership, character, service o Lake Highlands, and scholarship. Compiling these qualifications, a oard of faculty members selected 50 Seniors and 29 Juniors for admission to the outstanding group. Formal induction was highlighted y newsman Mr. Bob Gooding's speech, reflecting on the ideals and oals that the Honor Society members should continue to strive for n the future. Later in the year, Mark Johnson, President, and Maggie iley, Treasurer, were selected by the club as applicants for a Naonal Honor Society scholarship. Other officers were Vice-Pres. John ichardson, Sec. Whitney Wolf, and Reporter Sandra Stecher. Sponsors ere Mrs. Jane Mitchell and Mrs. Linda Wilcox.

Journalists Published the fang

Flashing cameras and pecking typewriters filled the bustling journalism room while staff members hurried to meet the upcoming deadlines. Through the many hours of industrious labor, members of the fang successfully accomplished the All-Texas rating at the Texas High School Press Association and the Award of Distinguished Merit at the Interscholastic League Press Conference. Not only did the staff publish a bi-weekly paper, but they also promoted the first movie of Lake Highlands activities, thus expanding journalistic experience at Lake Highlands to the cinematic field. The fang staff was sponsored by Mrs. Lillian Hefner. David Bates was Editor and Dana Davis was Managing Editor.

Wildcat Held Memories

With deadlines creeping up every two months, the Wildcat staff, sponsored by Miss Fran Maples, was kept busy cropping pictures, typing copy, and creating layouts during the entire year. Lost pictures, torn pages, and unidentified photos made the task even more challenging. The satisfaction of a job well done came as the last page was accepted by the publisher.

Literary Magazine Published Second Year

The Agape staff and the Creative Writing Club combined their talents in order to have a larger variety of creative works. After several joint meetings, both organizations agreed to merge. The members, sponsored by Mrs. Doris Williamson and Mrs. MaryAnn Runberg, worked together to enter writing contests and publish the annual Lake Highlands literary magazine, Agape.

Journalists Chosen for Quill and Scroll

The Quill and Scroll is a national organization for outstanding high school and college journalists. The students in the Lake Highlands chapter were chosen from the Wildcat yearbook staff and the Tang newspaper staff. Each member had to display a definite interest and ability in journalism to be chosen. The officers of the Quill and Scroll were the editors from the two publications, Dan Pritchett, David Bates, and Dana Davis. Sponsors were Mrs. Lillian Hefner and Miss Fran Maples.

Red Masque Fostered Dramatic Interest

Inspiring dramatic interest and providing opportunities in acting and stage production, the Red Masque Society took another sweeping bow as the year ended. Opening the 1969 season was the devilish drama, The Devil and Daniel Webster, directed by Miss Shirley Collier, sponsor of the club. Highlights of the year included attending a number of various plays, having bake sales, and sponsoring a talent party at Christmas time. The club also entered UIL competitions and helped produce the Senior Play, Sabrina Fair. The annual banquet, held at the end of the year, marked the close of the season. Orators Spoke Out

"Pronounce those syllables distinctly! Slow down! Watch your posture." These are just a few tips for proper and effective speaking. The Speech Club members know them by heart and put them into practice as they represented Lake Highlands in speech tournaments throughout Texas. The LH Orators had a winning team and displayed their talents in such areas as poetry and prose readings, debate, dramatic readings, impromptu speaking, extemp speaking, oration, humorous interpretation, and duet-acting. The Orators, sponsored by Miss Lynda Cleveland, are justly proud, for they ranked in the top five in almost every tournament they entered.

Bell Boys Added to Enthusiasm

Touchdown! Screams, applause, and the ever familiar golden tones of the Wildcat Bell resounded through the air. Ringing in the spirit of LH, the Bell Boys; Joe Calloway, David Grinsfelder, Lindsey Owens, Steve Wilson, completed the enthusiasm at pep rallies and games. Their sponsor was Mr. Charles Moore.

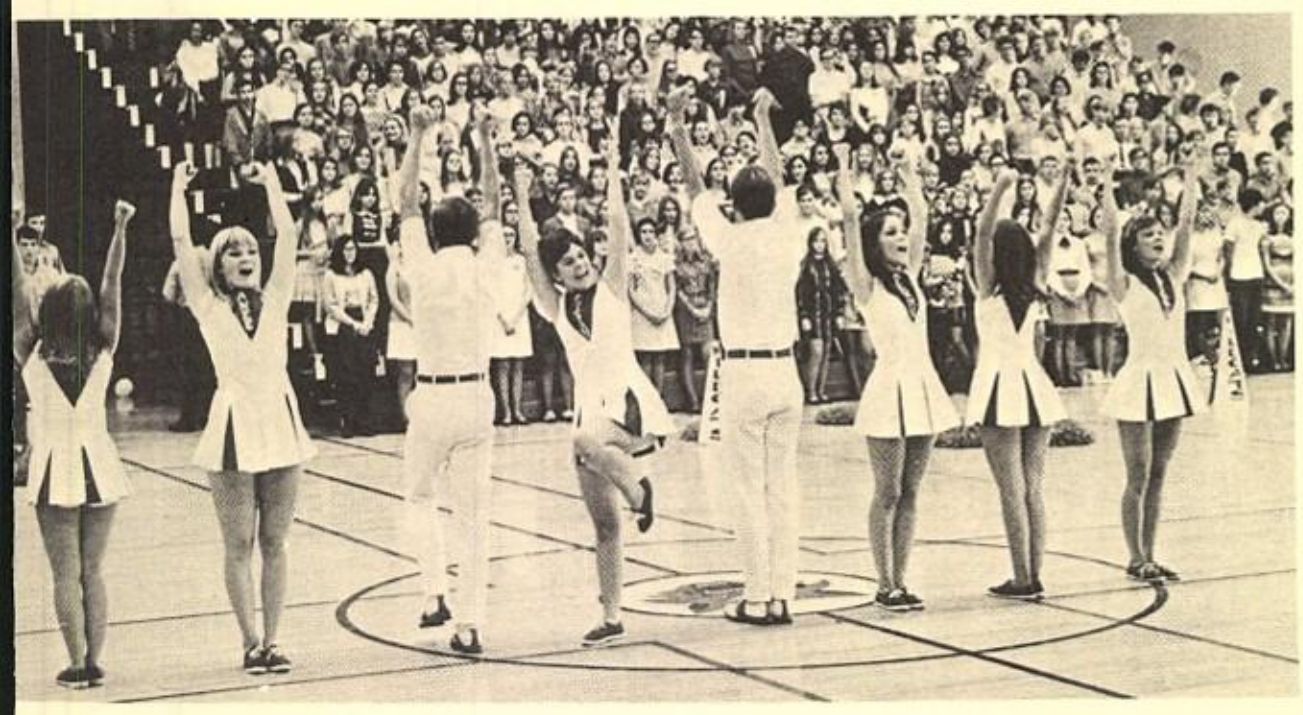
Cheerleaders Built Spirit

SPIRIT! Driven by that exhilarating force, Lake Highland's eight energetic cheerleaders worked hard and long to boost the teams to victory. Capturing a first place at S.M.U. Cheerleading School were Becky Gealy; head cheerleader, Penny Atwood, Janet Emblad, Gwynee Lee, Diane Hamilton, Sonny Morgan, Sally Russell and Mike Thomas, who shared a season of crepe paper, signs and cheers. Their talents did not stop there, but they went on to display them at the Varsity Revue, and Spring Show among other performances. The sponsor of the cheerleaders was Mrs. Pam Evans.



Mixed Choir Perfected LH Musicale

Choirs Brought Culture to LH

An active part of Lake Highlands, the LH Choirs reflected the more cultural side of high school life. Directed by Miss Marjean Edgar, the mixed and girls choirs presented concerts for the student body throughout the school year. The mixed choir also blended their talents with those of the band in the annual Patriotic Program. Joined by the Madrigal singers, the choirs attended the University Interscholastic League Solo and Ensemble Contest. The Madrigal Choir also performed during the Christmas season in their original 16th century costumes.

Officers of the choir are Chief Walton, Mark Johnson, Bev Carter, and Candy Moser.

Bands Delighted Audiences

A whistle command and a raised baton signaled the start of the first half-time show of the Wildcat Band, under the direction of Mr. Howard Dunn and led by drum majors David Power and David Sinclair. It also launched the opening of an active season of rehearsals, contests, and performances. The never-ending practices paid off as forty members were awarded positions in the All-Region Band, and seventeen received the All-State award. Mr. Dunn organized the half-time display at the Dallas Cowboy-New York Jets football game in which the Richardson School District participated. The Varsity Revue, presented at Homecoming, was a yearly show written, produced, and directed by the band members. An exciting year was concluded with a four-day trip to New Orleans to march in the Mardi Gras Parade.

Majorettes Kept Cadence

Adding spice to the band during half-time performances, pep rallies, and competitions during the year were the majorettes, under the direction of Miss Donna Snyder. Twirling their way to the Mardi Gras and University Inter-Scholastic League Contest, the eight girls found an appreciative audience wherever they journeyed. Besides rehearsing for numbers on the field, they also spent long hours practicing with the band. They are as follows: Sherry Coke, Sarah Hott, Valerie Johnson, Cindie Jones, Cathy Little, Cathy Roberts, Donna Robison, Melbra Smith, and Patti Sullivan, head majorette.

Highlandettes Had Active Year

Marching six miles in a Mardi Gras parade to decorating football playèrs' houses made up the extremes of the Highlandette activities in the 1969-70 season. During the hectic football season the "highsteppers" still found time to entertain Cotton Bowl crowds with dance numbers at the Cowboy-Jets and SMU-Air Force games and to add two trophies from the Henderson County Drillteam Competition in Athens to their growing collection. The Highlandettes, directed by Mrs. Frances Davenport, journeyed to New Orleans for Mardi Gras with the band in February and later in the year presented another delightfully successful Spring Show. The Highlandettes, as usual, had a busy, rewarding year and added a little more to the meaning of the word "dedication."

LH Roped Longhorns, Shot Down Cardinals

Opening their second season in AAAA, the Lake Highlands Wildcats clashed with the W. T. White Longhorns, in a hard fought battle. A spurt in the fading minutes swept the Wildcats to a 14-13 victory over the 'Horns. A 14 yard pass from quarterback Don Jarma to end Pat Hogan resulted in the first touchdown. A superb run of 84 yards by Jarma in the second period was wiped out when officials called offsides against a Wildcat lineman. Late in the fourth quarter, Jarma connected with right half-back Marion Timberlake for the deciding TD.

With just one minute and thirty seconds into the MacArthur game, Mark Means booted a 28 yard field goal to set the Wildcats on a rampage to a 37-0 victory over the Mac-Arthur Cardinals. The Wildcats captured and made use of seven Cardinal fumbles. Barry Sorrels, Danny Jordan, Bob Iden, and Marion Timberlake all scored for LH.

Above: Danny Jordan side-steps a Colonel tackler as opposing forces close in. Right: Struggling to get a grip on the elusive pigskin, Pat Hogan is brought down by two Mesquite defenders.

Skeeters Bombed WILDCATS, LH Walked Over Cardinals

A hungry swarm of Mesquite Skeeters stunned the LH team just before the half and brought down the Wildcats for a 24-22 loss. After touchdowns by Marion Timberlake and Bob Iden, the Wildcats lost their lead with a Mesquite field goal. A Danny Jordan TD and two-point conversion were not enough to keep Lake Highlands from being on the short-end of the score.

Victory was the cry after the Wildcats shut out the South Garland Colonels 27-0. LH defense held the Colonels throughout the game and the Wildcat offense took advantage of a weak South Garland defense. Pat Hogan grabbed a pair of touchdown passes while two one-yard dives were made by Perry Senn and Dan Jordan. Kicker Mark Means booted three extra points for the victorious Wildcats.

LH Tamed Broncos, De-Stung Yellowjackets

Lake Highlands pulled out a squeeker to christen their new stadium with a 28-24 win over the Denton Broncos. Early in the third quarter, the Wildcats trailed 24-14, however, Bob Iden scored the two go-ahead touchdowns on a two yard dive. Danny Jordan made the two TD's in the first half after Lake Highlands marched 38 and 83 yards.

The Wildcats romped over the Denison Yellow Jackets 45-13. After a 7-7 first quarter tie with a Bob Iden TD, the Wildcats took command and kept it as Danny Jordan galloped for two touchdowns, while Marion Timberlake and Doug Geldert caught passes for their TD's. Mark Means kicked the PAT's and a field goal and ran four yards for the final touchdown.

Paris Marked for Destruction, Bearcats Captured by LH

The Wildcats' Homecoming game was a well earned 38-7 victory over the Paris Wildcats. The statistics of the rushing and passing yardage were as one-sided as the final score. The key men for LH were Doug Geldert and Barry Sorrels, each making two touchdowns. Mark Means added a 31 yard field goal and the PATS.

In a game of numerous fumbles, pass interceptions, penalties and mass chaos, the Wildcats broke loose and came on top with a 28-14 victory over the Sherman Bearcats. Ken Kelly recovered a blocked punt in the end zone for the Wildcats' final TD.

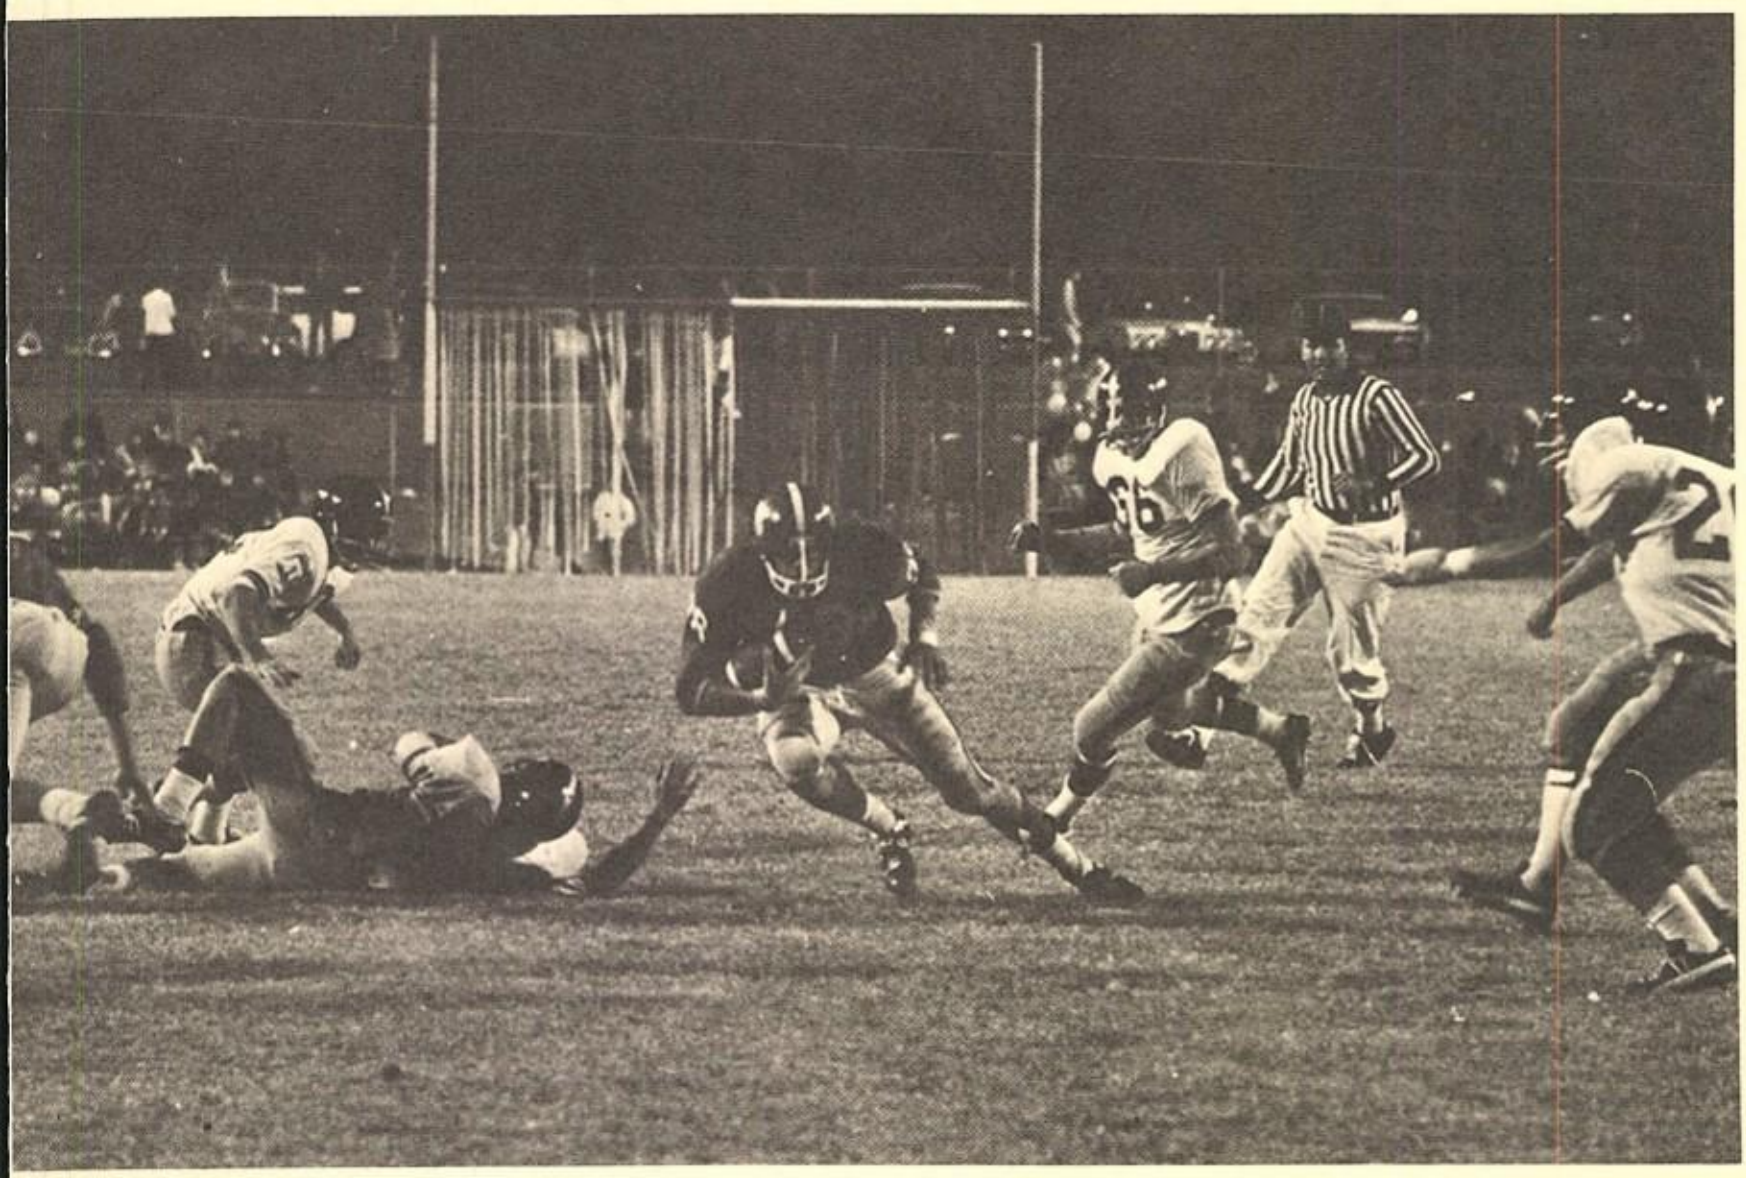
Lions and Eagles Preyed on Wildcats

Greenville's hungry Lions sprang on the Lake Highlands Wildcats and were victorious with a score of 35-15. LH broke through the Lion's demolition defense for 15 points. The two touchdowns were made by fullback Danny Jordan, while Mark Means and Pat Hogan made the extra points. Lake Highlands' score was surpassed 20 points by the Lions' scrambling Mike Thomas, who penetrated the Wildcat defense for 240 yards.

After a fight to the finish, the Richardson Eagles came out on top with the final score 24-17. The Wildcats took command with a TD by Barry Sorrels and a field goal by Mark Means. The Wildcats broke through an Eagle grasp for another touchdown by Don Jarma. In the deciding fourth quarter, the Eagles took advantage of an LH interception, giving them inspiration for two TD's. With only seconds remaining, the Wildcats regrouped for a final onslaught to capture the district crown, but time ran out leaving Richardson with the title.



Danny Jordan races through a gaping hole in the Richardson defense to move the Wildcats out of their own territory.

J.V. Won District

Wildcats Seized District Title

An extended blistering attack carried the 1969-70 Lake Highlands Wildcats to an 8-AAAA district championship. Highlighting the season was the long-awaited defeat of the Richardson Eagles. Leading scorer of the season, Andre Tillman, was chosen player of the year in our district, and Coach Charles Avant was chosen coach of the year. The team included Carl Wright, Bobby Dryden, David Grinsfelder, Don Parma, Doug Stafford, Andre Tillman, Jeff Bilton, Pat Hogan, Jack Schmelar, Charles Patton, Danny Hunt, Robert Firth, manager.

Cats Run Hot, Then Cold

The Wildcats battled their way back to claim the district title in a playoff game with the Richardson Eagles. Sparked by the outstanding performance of Andre Tillman, Lake Highlands dominated the court during the final quarter.

In the bi-district game, LH dropped a 75-60 verdict to the RL Turner Lions in Memorial Auditorium. In the 3rd quarter the Wildcats plunged into a hole they were never able to overcome. However, the loss was not as heartbreaking as the original loss to Richardson for the talented Lions progressed so far as to play for the state title in Austin.

Richardson School Board

The Richardson School Board is the cornerstone of the educational structure and standards of the district. On the shoulders of the board members rests the responsibility of providing the best and most meaningful education for the students. They also plan for the future growth of the district. The excellent reputation the Richardson School District has earned is due in large part to these dedicated men.

Administration

The stability and strength Lake Highlands possesses is a product of the students and administration working together toward a common goal. The new challenges presented by a rapidly expanding school were met with enthusiasm by Principal A. M. Anderson and his Vice-Principals, Jerry Green and Tom Whitman. These executives helped to initiate educational innovations this year such as team teaching and organizational changes.

"Youth is the period of building up in habits, and hopes, and faiths. Not an hour but is trembling with destinies; not a moment once passed of which the appointed work can ever be done again, or the neglected blow struck on the cold iron." — Ruskin

Seniors Reflected on Their Past

Reaching the climax of their school year, the title of senior was bestowed on the class of '70. Disappointments, successes, and sentiments seemed greater. Again the Chicken Dinner provided the class with its funds. Again, too, the last football game was saddening. The seniors realized that this was the final opportunity to yell at a Lake Highlands pep rally, the final time to play on the LH field, the final chance to walk the halls as a Wildcat, and the last time to see their classmates as fellow seniors.

Dear Mr. Peppermint,
It's been a real blast being in government class with you. You always brighten up the day with your subtle humor and comedy. I know life will be sweet (ha! ha!) to you as I wish you the best of luck in the future. Stay sweet (& sticky).

Love ya,

Juniors Honored LH Traditions

The spectacular Class of 1971 whole-heartedly took part in the traditional events of the year. The Varsity Revue, the A.F.S. Olympics, the Festi-Fair, and the annual spaghetti dinner were only a few of the many activities to which the Juniors contributed. Class spirit was proven time and time again throughout the year. Not only were they triumphant in winning the spirit stick, but the Juniors also earned the plucked eagle for the best decorated car.

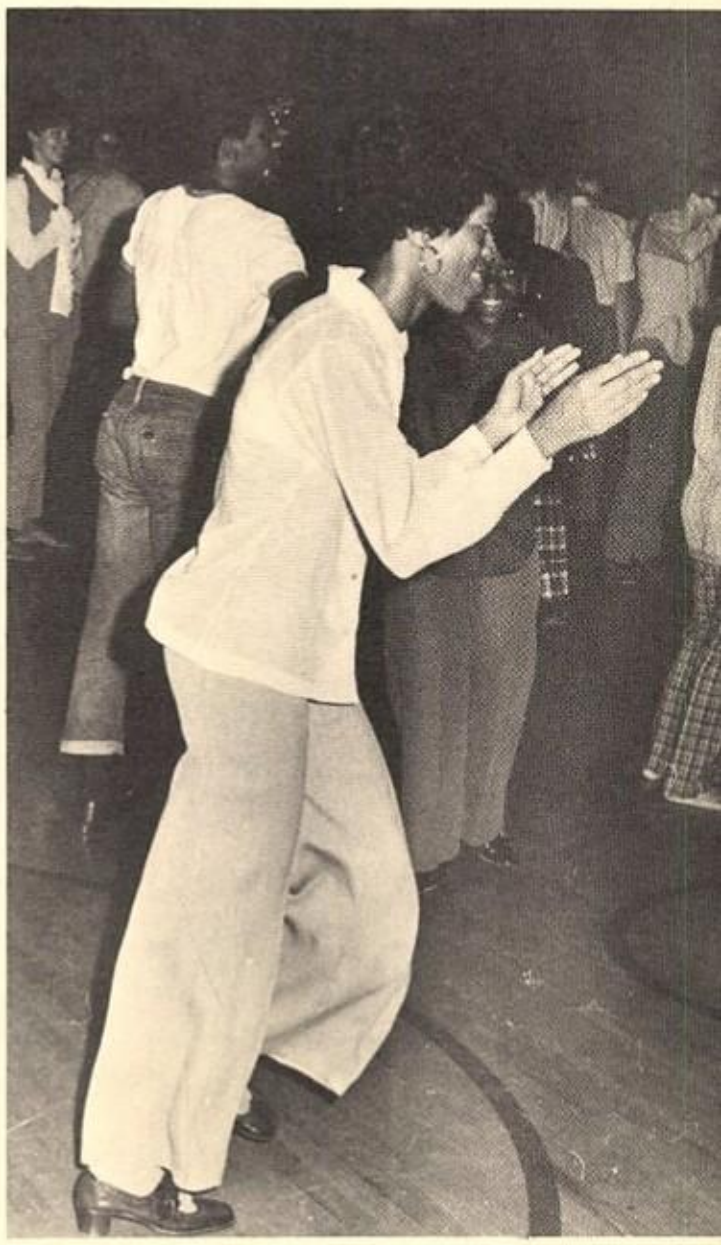
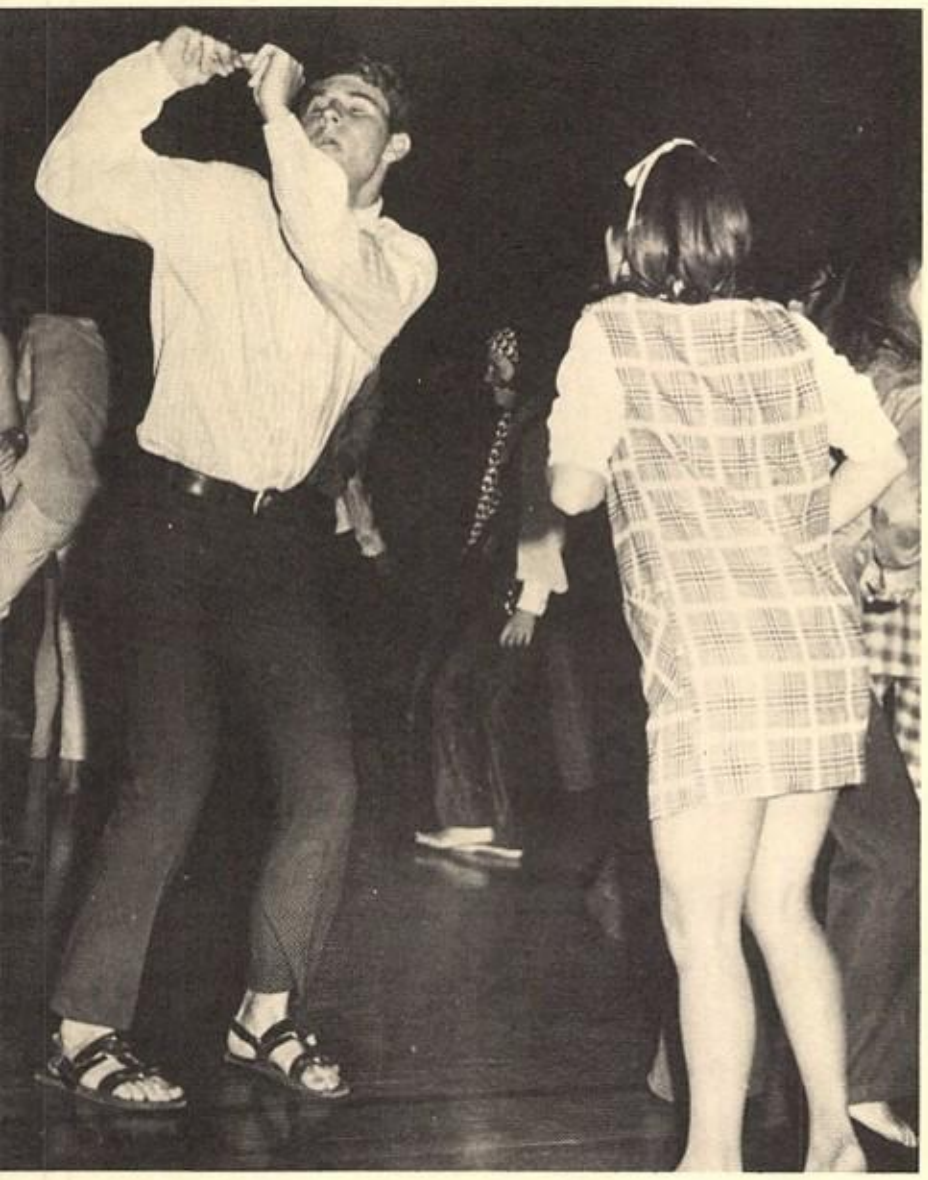
Juniors Enjoyed Victory Dances

The excitement and anxiety of the birth of the new, yet uncompleted, stadium was celebrated by juniors and other Wildcat supporters with a Birthday Party-Victory Dance. Bathing in the electrifying atmosphere, the victorious team and their fans enjoyed the unlimited sights and sounds of Stone Creek. Even though the music was for the most part heavy psychedelic, the dance had a certain element of "soul," as shown right.





Following the 28-24 Lake Highlands victory over Denton, John Vernon and Libby Goode groove out at the Birthday Party.

Juniors Competed in AFS Olympics

L. H. Juniors once again actively participated in the annual Olympics sponsored by the A.F.S. The "In-betweens" competed courageously and were successful in gaining points in the egg toss, the potato sack race, and the egg drop. Richard Burdine, Doug Adamson, Gary Hannah, and John Vernon led their class in cheering the In-betweens on to victory. Charlie Mercer represented the Junior class in the contest for the A.F.S. Use TARRANT'S SELTZER APERIENT FOR DYSPEPSIA, SICK HEADACHE, CONSTIPATION.

"By every feature I can see
You're Bilious in a high degree,
You're losing snap and losing weight,
Your pulse runs at a railroad rate.
In "Nature's Remedy," behold
A certain Cure for young and old.
The Constipation will depart,
The Indigestion quickly start.
And soon Sick Headache will subside
When Tarrant's Seltzer has been tried."

"Bestow thy youth so that thou mayest have comfort to remember it when it hath forsaken thee, and not sigh and grieve at the account thereof. While thou art young thou wilt think it will never have an end; but the longest day hath its evening, and thou shalt enjoy it but once; it never returns again; use it therefore as the springtime, which soon departeth, and wherein thou oughtest to plant and sow all provisions for a long and happy life." — Raleigh.

Even though I don't know you that well, you're pretty cool. Stay away from these bicycles though. And I hope just cause you're graduating it doesn't mean I'll never see ya again. Stay sweet!
